One of the most important responsibilities of an NQT is to deliver excellent, innovative and accessible CPD. This may involve learning from a range of sources, for example from external providers, industry or the public sector. Rydal College offers a range of certificate, diploma and degree courses that are delivered by distance learning and so enable learners to fit their learning around their working lives. In this video, find out more about our certificate, diploma and degree courses, including University of Gloucestershire Professional Learning (the online equivalent of an undergraduate degree) and our Masters in Human Resource Management. Due to COVID-19, we are temporarily postponing our 10th Anniversary Conference & Workshops until July 2021. For more information click here. Our Directors' Council meetings are open to all members, however, attendance at the Annual General Meeting is by invitation only and open to our professional staff only.
